

CLUB RULES

1. Persons entering the premises of Sheesha Lounge are required to familiarise themselves with these rules. Entering the club means accepting these rules.
2. Persons staying in the club are required to comply with the recommendations of staff and security to ensure safety and order.
3. Bringing and possession of weapons or other dangerous objects, fire hazard materials, alcoholic beverages, psychotropic substances or other abusive substances is strictly prohibited.
4. Security guards have the right to review the contents of bags or clothes of persons suspected to have brought in or possessing items referred to in point 3 of the rules.
5. The following persons won't be allowed into the club: in sports clothes or "not elegant", intoxicated, being under the influence of drugs, behaving aggressively, possessing objects described in point 3, refusing to undergo the activities referred to in point 4 of the rules.
PERSONS BARRED FROM THE CLUB WON'T BE ALLOWED INTO THE CLUB EITHER.
6. Only persons over 21 years of age may enter the club.
Security guards have the right to check IDs of Sheesha Lounge guests in order to determine their identity and verify their age.
7. Club card holders have priority in entering the club.
8. The selector decides who enters the club.
9. The selector has the right to not give a reason for which a third party was not allowed into the club.
10. Table reservation does not guarantee entry into the club
11. In the absence of free space on the premises, the security guards and selector have the right to not allow anymore guests into the club.
12. The staff has the right to refuse serving alcohol to intoxicated persons.
13. Disorderly persons, or persons being a nuisance to other guests of the club and persons violating the rules will be asked to leave.
In the case of a drastic violation of the rules, the security guards are required to use coercive measures to ensure safety.
14. In the case of damage to property or commitment of an offense, security guards are required to immediately capture the perpetrator and forward him/her to the Police.
15. There is a cloakroom in the club, payable 2zł/person.
The club charges a fee of 25 zł for a lost cloakroom number. The club is not responsible for items left in the cloakroom, and items left at the club will be removed after 2 weeks.
16. Persons involved in club events give consent to the processing of their image for club's marketing purposes. Consent is given for an indefinite period without territorial restrictions.
The consent also includes the dissemination of the image by third parties in the context of broadcasting and public display of marketing materials, reports and photo reports regarding the event.